Explore Cameron County

Grab a paddle and pole

Pick up a waterways map of the Driftwood Branch of the Sinemahoning Creek and spend the day paddling, tubing or fishing on the headwaters of the West Branch of the Susquehanna River. Stevenson Dam in Sinemahoning State Park provides still water for kayaking and canoeing. In the winter, trade your pole for ice fishing gear.

Swing a club

Open spring through fall, the Emporium Country Club is one of the most picturesque 18 hole courses in the state. After you play, enjoy dinner in the restaurant.

Lace up your boots

Explore the 30 trails in the least populated county of Pennsylvania. Most trails are maintained by DCNR and can be found winding through the Elk State Forest. Trails include horseback riding, biking, snowmobiling and hiking.

History buffs

Historical markers tell the local history including the story behind the founding of Sylvania products. The Little Museum in Sterling Run includes artifacts from General Joseph McNarney.

Wildlife abounds

Raptors can be spotted throughout the county, catching the updraft winds at Top of the World. Check out the eagle nests at Stevenson Dam. Songbirds can be heard and spotted throughout the county. In June, rattlesnakes are target of hunters. Elk continue to call secluded Cameron County home, away from the glare of numerous tourists.

Check out the stars

Boasting some of the darkest skies in the east, take a look up and just appreciate our incredible night skies and the beauty of the Milky Way

Claim the Triple Crown

Ultra Trail Run
The third Saturday of October is reserved for the ultra trail run. Competitors tackle the steep terrain in the Elk State Forest in either the 12k, 25k or 50k distance. The fall foliage and spectacular vistas make this a picture worthy event.

Bike
Beyond the Dirt highlights the heart of the PA Wilds. The event held the third weekend in August includes multiple routes. There is something for everyone including a 100 mile elite/open category. Enjoy a weekend of camping, scenic gravel roads with amazing vistas, live music and awesome food.

Paddle
The Driftwood Branch of the Sinemahoning Creek hosts the first leg of the Sinemahone Triple Crown each spring. Competitors jump into kayaks and canoes to explore the headwaters of the Susquehanna River on the second Saturday of April.

Little words about us

The chamber has been operating in Cameron County since the 1950s. The knowledgeable staff works with more than 130 members. In 2008, the chamber added the artisan center. Capitalizing on the talented artists who call this home, the chamber office oversees the sales of 60 artists in the region. The office at 34 East Fourth Street in downtown Emporium is open 6 days a week. The staff can help you expand your business, offer brochures for the planning and help publicize your event.
