Jefferson County Selfie Scavenger Hunt

1. Gobbler's Knob: The Gobbler's Knob Visitor Center houses many historical and rare Groundhog Club, Groundhog Day, and Punxsutawney Phil items.
2. Phantastic Phils: Whimsical six feet fiberglass Punxsutawney Phils adorn the streets of the Weather Capital of the World, each an individual work of art.
3. Jefferson County Courthouse: Built in Italianate style in 1869 for $86,413 and clock tower has beautiful lighting changes during special events.
4. Brockway Mural: Colorful 2,400 square foot public mural in downtown that tells the story of Brockway's history and heritage.
5. Scripture Rocks Heritage Park: Hiking trail through 67 engraved boulders carved by Douglas M. Stahlman in the early 1900s, including Chapel Rock, where he lived and penned his journals.
6. Walter Dick Memorial Park: Features a picnic, playground, and swimming areas. The stream is popular with anglers and well known for the Fish-For-Fun fly-fishing for trout section.
7. Reynoldsville Hometown Mural: Featuring various historical and local attractions, painted by local artist Deb Bunnell and Jeff Tech students.
8. PA Great Outdoors Visitors Bureau sign at Jefferson County Airport: Official airport for Pennsylvania's Great Outdoors region with daily flights to and from Pittsburgh and Baltimore on Southern Airway Express.
9. Kyle Lake: 165 acres reservoir with a handicapped accessible fishing pier. Electric motors and unpowered boats only.
10. Reynlow Park: 600 acres, 4 pavilions, stage, gazebo, primitive camping sites, playground areas, horseshoe pits, hiking trails, and Sportsman's Dam.
